THE LABOR QUESTION

Editor Journal —It is not to be expected that a subject so important and so complex in its nature as this can be fully discussed within the limits of a newspaper article far less can one hope to discover a plan by means of which all the evils of the present state of things are to be abolished but suggestions may be offered tending toward a solution of of the great and perplexing social problem The labor question so called relates to employers as well as to the employed and in its full scope involves the whole science of political economy It is difficult to effect a change in one department without reference to others as for instance the matter of the rate of wages is partly governed by the supply of labor which in turn is connected with the question of immigration Able writers moreover, have canvassed the topic so thoroughly that no branch of it has been left untouched yet so far but little that is practical seems to have been done and the recent violent outbreak with its attendant loss of life and shameful waste of property shows that the Government should delay no longer in taking measures to repress this power which has gained such ground in our midst as to menace the order loving portion of the community and which if unresisted would aim to subvert the very principles of our Republican Constitution to its own ends I allude to the trade unions which were the moving cause of the late strikes and riots and I ask if Congress could not by active legislation prevent the recurrence of such disgraceful scenes, in taking the matter of trade unions and their influence into consideration and endeavoring to suppress them These institutions do not really help the working man as the line he is on has it pay to one of them he could himself amass at home as a fund in case of necessity but they are countless useful to the drones who had rather strike and be supported out of the capital of the union than to work at high wages as has this class of men is to be found in every trade the industrious and capable union men have to help maintain the incompetent and idle ones When these unions have served to protect the rights of labor against the encroachments of capital they have answered a good purpose, but as at present managed the system is pernicious for it simply tyrannizes over men, when it keeps some in enforced idleness and prevents those who are striving from accepting offered employment Then again in the unreasonable demand that inferior workmanship shall be paid the same, or nearly the same price as skilled labor the trade unions would take away all incentive for improvement, and thus the average quality of work would be lowered Numbers of the better class of mechanics have already emancipated themselves from the bondage of trade unions and more would be glad to do so if certain of getting protection and employment If all large companies, business firms, manufacturers etc would follow the example set by a few and hire only free workmen the forces of the latter would soon be increased to such an extent that they might defy the trade unions, whose power would be continually lessening if not entirely done away with Perhaps, too if railway corporations agreed to adopt the plan recently advised by some one of giving to their employes or inducing them to take a share in the stock of the company would not the interest however small, which each workman would then have in the road debar him from helping to reduce the profits by a strike?

There is no doubt that the price of labor is diminished by the constant influx of immigrants arriving on our shores Many of these come here in great ignorance of everything pertaining to the country and filled with vague notions that labor of any kind is always in demand and enormous wages to be made Finding their hopes, to a large degree unfounded, they naturally in their disappointment form part of the great mass of dissatisfied working people who persuade themselves that some body or something is to blame for their poverty, and are ready to be have any demagogue who tells them that Communism is the plan for their relief or inflames them to league together for the purpose of compelling the government to accede to their requests The idea of a "Workingmen's Party" in politics should be decried throughout the intelligent press In a country like this where every ambitious man may hope to rise to any position his abilities would enable him to fill why should workingmen choose to be branded as a class in some way different from the rest of their fellow beings or as if they must always expect to remain in the same social scale? Let them endeavor to regard the labor question from a broader standpoint than simply as it affects them and use their own judgment before placing implicit faith in the statements of others But how is it possible for ignorant people with minds narrowed down by the daily toil of life to think clearly and reason without prejudice Must not one expect that they will continue to be controlled by the ideas of party leaders and politicians until education is more widely diffused? The working classes will be best helped by making education compulsory and by continuing and supporting the present unsectarian school system Of course this does not meet the present difficulty but is an outlook for the future and this leads me to a suggestion which, if carried out might prove of advantage to the coming generation of workers It is conceded that in all trades and professions, the man who best understands his business who has most experience quickness, or proficiency is pretty sure to obtain a situation easier, and to succeed better in all respects than those less well trained In fact, when people complain of not being able to get work it is often because they are not capable of performing that work in a satisfactory manner Since the days of apprenticeships are past in most trades, workmen often set out with a superficial knowledge of their art and expect to compete with those more proficient Now schools might be established for the purpose of giving to the young a thorough training in the different trades which they intend to pursue so the children of working people would have an opportunity to gain sufficient experience and aptitude in their various occupations to enable them when of a suitable age to take in the labor market the position of skilled workmen, and not to be as is generally the case at present, mere raw material Schools of the sort mentioned could be arranged to combine the features of both grammar and industrial schools, so that the pupils could obtain general instruction during a portion of the time and devote the rest to learning their trade In this way none would lose the advantages of ordinary schooling Such institutions could with propriety be supported at the public expense and if it were done, and the vagrant and homeless children of our streets compelled to attend it would be an investment which might reduce the jail and State prison expenses of the future As one of the most important features of the labor question is that of "Woman's Work" it must be remarked, in connection with this subject that to one large class of working women, and to their employers as well nothing would be more beneficial than to increase the number of training schools for domestic servants As time goes on, the range of employments upon which women may enter will probably continue to enlarge, till they will be excluded from no occupation which they can do well But however this may be, it is certain that household help will always be needed, and competent servants are constantly in demand Such being the case how important it is that girls who expect to fill these positions should receive some previous training which would at least contribute to render them safer forces in a home than they sometimes are It is no trivial matter what kind of persons have the responsibility of managing the children or preparing the food of a family It would not be unsuitable for a cook to have some acquaintance with the rudiments of chemistry, and to a nursemaid who was not entirely ignorant of the rules of physiology, one would run not less risk in intrusting children Some time may elapse before the great mass of the servant class, so large a proportion of whom are foreign, can be brought to perceive the advantage such a system would be glad to avail themselves of it, and soon it would be found that girls who could show certificates from a good training school vouching for their ability in a greater or less degree could obtain better situations and higher wages than those not so recommended Sensible women everywhere have long been aware of the importance of this question of the incompetence of servants They know it to be the bugbear of the American housekeeper especially in our large cities and perhaps the chief cause why so many families live in boarding houses instead of homes but many consider the difficulty as irremediable Still let this plan of training schools be fairly tested during the next decade and I think satisfactory results would ensue Why could not ladies of means who appreciate the idea, unite in something like societies to forward the establishing of these institutions? They might be made partially self supporting, by turning the work, which the girls taught in them would do to some practical account It seems too as if the next person who thinks of endowing a new female college, might more suitably devote his or her money to this object It may be argued that this is a vague proposition, but it is certain that bequests are continually left to various objects such as foreign missions, etc and there are always benevolent individuals ready to give pecuniary assistance to any worthy cause in which their sympathy is fully enlisted, and why should not the interest of such people, and of the community at large be aroused on this subject

There is no doubt that the condition of a majority of the laboring classes is worse in crowded cities and elsewhere and therefore it has been urged that the more destitute among them ought to migrate to our unoccupied lands in the West, and make a living by farming This would probably be the very best step which this class of people could take but they are just the ones who lack the courage and enterprise to undertake a pioneer life unassisted Even the humblest home cannot be made in a new country without some money to start with, and then a man who has been brought up to an indoor trade will not be able to till the ground to much profit until he has had experience But if the government would appoint a colonization bureau to assist these poor people in pre empting new land by advances of money, tools and teams, to be paid for by the settler at low rates as he became able, and furthermore, if numbers of families were aided to go and form a colony together, with this encouragement, the hardships in the case would be much reduced, and some who could not farm, might in a little community be enabled to follow their trades with more profit than in a large city This plan may not be entirely new to the public, but with other suggestions is submitted in the hope of some slight good being brought about by it

AMERICAN CITIZEN

THE Salt Lake Tribune tell of a Mormon temple which is being erected on a scale of great magnificence It says

We are informed by some of our country cousins just in from the San Pete county Utah, that work on the temple at Manti is progressing favorably and that there are at present 500 men at work on it The Manti temple is to be erected on the top of the highest mountain in the vicinity of the town of Manti and when completed will be one of the most magnificent edifices, if not the most in the United States The water will be forced from the valley, by steam pumps to the top of the mountain, where will be erected several fountains, with beautiful grounds laid out around the temple It is the intention of the Mormons to have this building completed in about four years and after it is finished well may the brethren look upon it with pride for very likely for beauty it will not have no equal on the American continent

NEWS OF THE MORNING

Montgomery Blair has introduced a resolution in the Maryland Legislature asking for judicial inquiry into Hayes title Other States are expected to take similar action

Victor Emanuel, King of Italy, died on the 9th

England informs Russia that she has no objections to the conclusion of the armistice on the Czar's terms, but every proposition of peace must be submitted for approval

Grant is in Cairo and has visited the Khedive

The Mexican Congress has voted to admit all breadstuffs free of duty

The leaders of the San Francisco labor agitation have been arrested on charges of riot and conspiracy

The President wants the coinage clause of the silver bill altered to conform to his views so that he can sign it when it passes both Houses

E R Goodrich who forged names on the pay roll of the Interior Department has been sentenced to two years imprisonment

Senator Jones thinks that we can stand a flood of silver

The President will send a special message to Congress on the Chinese question favoring the eradication of the evil

NEW CANDIDATE.

The Belmont Courier says

We are authorized to state that Hon D P Walter of Hot Creek Nye county will present his name before the Democratic State Convention as a candidate for Governor of Nevada Mr Walter has had considerable legislative experience and no doubt would make a first rate Executive officer.

We think that the Courier must be mistaken about Mr Walter's presenting his name to the Democratic convention It must have meant the Republican, for Mr Walter has always been considered an active member of that party and he was elected State Senator from Nye county by the Republicans But politics aside Mr Walter would make a splendid Governor He is a good man in every sense of the word, and we believe is as capable a man for the Executive position as any yet named

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

President Hayes has definitely determined to make the Chinese question the subject of a special message to Congress In this message he will call attention to the present and prospective evils of unlimited Chinese immigration to this country, and will recommend Congress to take such action as in its wisdom may be most proper and effective to restrict and regulate the immigration of Mongolians The President has not yet decided whether he will suggest any particular measure for the attainment of these objects, but at present it seems probable that the President will confine himself to a forcible presentation of the necessity for action and leave for the two Houses of Congress the task of devising a proper remedy It is also quite probable that the President will direct the Secretary of State to notify the Chinese Government, through the usual department diplomatic channels that some action on its part is required to restrict the immigration of its subjects to this country, but nothing positive in regard to making such notification has yet been determined The President expects to have the message ready for transmission to Congress soon after its reassembling.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, in an exhaustive review of the whole question of the Presidential electoral count, in the last number of the International Review, comes to the conclusion that the best solution of the threatened troubles was the one which was chosen

A Sure thing Remedy —Whatever chance may betide a subject of Her Majesty Victoria, the common British instinct is to look to the courts for redress and damages If a train is behind time, if a cab man over charges, if a cartman spatters mud on coat or trousers if an apothecary sells laudanum for ipecac, if an arm is put out of joint or a heart broken somebody must be sued Indeed, it is not improbable that in the next world the average Briton, if he finds himself in the wrong latitude, will insist upon bringing a suit for damages against some devil or other who may be responsible for having switched him off the right track for Heaven.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

We have shared another

CHRISTMAS DAY

In Washington and the manner of its observance by hundreds of our temporary or permanent residents, many of them "respectable' and having the entree of the "best society" is to the last degree humiliating to those caring aught for the city's reputation, and should bring a blush to the face of members of Congress, too indifferent or cowardly to attempt to restrict the work of death, misery and woe accomplished by the one thousand, one hundred and five (1105) groggeries and gin mills which we are accused of supporting in this District, by as high an authority as the New York Times Though our local papers treated the matter rather gingerly, recording only some of the murderous incidents and more flagrant cases of assault that grew out of this traffic on the night of the 24th and the next day, with only remote allusions, if any at all, to the inciting cause of the carnival of crime that marked our celebration of the last anniversary day of the Saviour's birth it was tacitly agreed that there was more drunkenness with all the attendant ... than on any similar occasion for many years The whole method of Christmas observance here needs reforming It is a gala time for the hoodlums, the police make no pretense of enforcing the laws against the use of explosives and the town was kept in a turmoil from sunset Monday night till exhaustion gradually thinned the explosion of ... crackers the melodious notes of the tin horn and the excruciating sound ... from every other possible device for making a noise Early in the morning the streets were filled with hundreds maddened by that

RECEPTACLES OF GRIEF

Through the night and the public ... a ... drunkenly ... bar rooms ... to the several station houses the male and female offenders captured in all stages of inebriation, from the slightly tipsy and hilarious, pugnaciously or murderously inclined to those incapable of the slightest effort at locomotion because of beastly intoxication In the transportation carts male and female were promiscuously mixed, the latter of ... semi nude state, boys hardly entered on their teens,' went reeling through the streets, long before night some of the houses of detention were filled to their utmost capacity and it became a serious matter to provide for others still to be brought in In many localities it was absolutely dangerous to venture out of doors, and the less reputable precincts were given a wide berth by sober citizens called by business or social engagements to pass through or around them Generally, it was only the more reputable portions of the city that ladies could be induced to traverse at all and even there the more nervous were under a constant apprehension of insults or actual violence ... as this Christmas revelry

ROWDIES AND RUFFIANS

Monopolized the public conveyances, and the tipsy young swell dogged the Miss to the very church door How many attended the special services undertaken by the churches in commemoration of the day, partially under the influence of the egg nog or other "genteel' drink furnished by professing Christian householders to guests on their way to the sanctuary, there is no means of knowing; but that such a shocking profanation is exceedingly liable to occur in a community where a large minority, if not a majority, hold that a tender of alcohol in some of its forms, where the devil lurking in every drop is rendered "respectable" by the usages of the 'best society' is the highest mark of hospitality, no observer of social life here will care to dispute Altogether the celebration here of the most important event in the history of the world to every adherent of Christianity, in the year 1877, was

A BLOT

Upon the fair fame of the National Capital and a reproach to our civilization that permits a virtually unrestricted traffic in that which can be shown as responsible for a great preponderance of all crimes committed, that in one way and other furnishes the gallows nine tenths of all its victims, that fills our penitentiary, mad houses, our reformatory and charitable institutions with hopeless and unutterably miserable adults and with orphan children; that crowds the ranks of life with physically and morally degenerate men and women who in turn transmit their inherited or acquitted infirmities to wretched offsprings, that worse than wastes enough money in this country every decade to discharge the national indebtedness and to erect and endow a sufficient number of churches and school houses to accommodate every man, woman and child within our borders who would be bettered by the instructions which it is the province of each to impart, and which adds annually no inconsiderable portion of the tenants of our cemeteries, church-yards and the

POTTER'S FIELD

From the brightest intellect of each succeeding generation that has been left to struggle with this overwhelming curse I do not mean to be understood as intimating that all or even a majority of our residents are guilty of countenancing dram drinking or our hundreds of tippling shops On the contrary the cause of temperance has many sincere, noble advocates, whose lives would be a sufficient refutation of such a slander. But every one at all conversant with social usages here knows that intemperance is a prevailing vice, and to those away, the frightful array of figures cited will be accepted as conclusive LOGAN

SECESSION CONTEMPLATED.

Corruption Corporations and Misery—A Wail From the Unfortunates—The Reno Congress

[Correspondent Carson Tribune]

Reno, January 4, 1878

Editor Tribune For some time past our local papers here have been advocating the annexation of that portion of California lying east of the summit of the Sierra Nevadas to this State Now Mr Editor, having been a resident of Washoe county for the past twelve years I most earnestly protest against this measure, and suggest that the present boundary line between this State and California be so changed as to throw Washoe county into the State of California in order that we may have a square deal in the future

SHAMEFUL TREATMENT

This county has been shamefully treated by the different State Conventions Legislatures, and by Storey and Ormsby counties in particular How the Republican State Conventions have snubbed us, let such statesmen as Buck Powning, Lewis and others answer How the Legislatures have used us let the unfinished walls of "Bradley's corral,' situated on the banks of the roaring Truckee speak in thunder tones How our delegation to the last Legislature was hoodwinked by the unsophisticated classes who were receiving eight dollars per day to rob the State, let Harry Mighels and that incarnate devil Hi Parker, answer We have stood this thing until forbearance has ceased to be a virtue and by the immaculate powers, and the winged winds that roar and sweep around the Truckee Meadows, we are off for California

STATESMEN AND POLITICIANS

All of our patriotic and reformed statesmen, whose sole occupation is to play poker pedro, form independent parties and curse corporations, favor the proposition of joining a State where their services and talents will be appreciated and they can run with Dennis Kearney Jim Farley Billy Carr, and Newton Booth A petition is being circulated and signed by nearly all the citizens here praying Congress to cede us to the Golden State

OUR CONGRESS

We have recently organized a Congressional Lyceum which for wit, beauty and talent cannot be surpassed anywhere It is composed of thirty eight members, of which thirty six are candidates for office The other two are not of age, consequently are not eligible for any position in the gift of the people The first business of the organization was to make that great reformer and anti corruptionist Bob Clarke United States Senator in the place of the pure minded Willie Sharon An attempt was made to endorse Christopher Columbus Powning for Lieutenant Governor, but the mover of the resolution was thrown out of the window, there being twenty-two candidates among the members for the same position At the last meeting of the Lyceum the following preamble and resolutions were introduced and adopted unanimously

Whereas, The people of Washoe county are a God fearing class, loving cheap whisky, hating corporations and dance-houses, and

Whereas, We, for the past ten years, have suffered from unjust discriminations and wrongs heaped upon us by railroads, rich mine owners dance houses and corporations, and

Whereas. There is no way to get the best of the blarsted corporations, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Central Pacific Railroad Company be and are hereby compelled and ordered to take up their rails and run their road twenty miles north of Reno, thereby avoiding our county and saving our future generations from corruption and shame

Resolved, That the Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company be compelled to make their terminus at Truckee, thereby saving our pedro statesmen from the contaminating influence of boss Yerington

Resolved, That Mackay & Fair have ninety days in which to finish up their wood and timber business and leave the county, as their pernicious doctrines have ruined upwards of 1,500 Sclavonian, Scandanavian and Italian voters, and made them unfit to vote the independent ticket.

Resolved, That Bradley's corral," otherwise known as the State Prison be and the same is hereby transferred to Ormsby county and presented to that sterling old granger, Farmer Treadway

Resolved, That the Insane retreat may go to the devil

A resolution was introduced at the last meeting, inviting General Bob Clarke to address the Lyceum on "Corporations," "Corruption," and "What I don't know about the Bullion Tax"

We will send you a verbatim et literatum report of the lecture when delivered. Reno.

One cake of Leef's California Yeast will make over ten loaves of bread.

PLEASE SETTLE.

All persons indebted to the Journal are requested to make immediate payment.

Truckee Lodge Officers.

The officers of Truckee Lodge, I. O. O. F, for the present term, were last evening installed by John S. Bowker, Deputy Grand Master. The officers are W. H. Moe, Noble Grand; F. C. Updike, Vice Grand; Wm Lucas, Secretary; I. Frederick, Treasurer; J. Graff, Warden; J. N. Jaquish, Conductor; J. C. Haynes, L. S. N. G.; W. D. Phillips, R. S. V. G.

Travelers.

Supt. Crawford, of the Carson Mint, passed through town going below last night; also Gen. Davis, Dan Cook, of the Alta, Geo. Shannon and others. U. S. Marshal Ash came as far as Reno to consult with Indian Agent Barnes; J. D. Baldwin, Supt. of the Eagle Salt works, with Ben Leete, the boss, also came down from Virginia, and continued on to the works.

Bishop Whitaker's School.

The "School for Girls" will open for the present term this morning at 10 A. M. All interested in the school are cordially invited to be present.

A. A. Longley, of Truckee Meadows, announces that he has superior facilities and accommodations for stabling and feeding horses through the Winter.

Stocks go up one day and are down the next. Alta broke to 22 yesterday, and our Reno stock sharps are not quite so happy.

Charlie Jones is still confined to his house with rhumatism. He has been laid up a couple of weeks.

Sheriff's sale notice in our advertising columns.

District Court.

The following are the proceedings for the last two days:

Case of A. Doble vs. Jas. Mayberry; transferred to the U. S. Circuit Court.

Duryea & Elmore vs. Truckee Lodge; granted a new trial, unless plaintiffs accept judgment for a certain amount.

L. D. Wicks vs. M. Lippman; motion for new trial denied and ten days given to prepare new statements.

H. H. Hogan vs. Highland Ditch Co.; motion to dissolve injunction denied.

I. Marshall vs. Golden Fleece M. Co.; decision reserved for to-day.

Hobart vs. Wicks; set for Jan. 19.

Henry Ruhe vs. Ferguson & O'Hara; set for Jan. 9.

A. L. Brown vs. B. F. Leete: demurrer overruled and ten days to answer.

D. Mahoney vs. Hill & Oakes; demurrer overruled and five days to answer.

Du Quette vs. Oleite; demurrer overruled and ten days to answer.

Verdi Mill Co. vs. Wm. Merrill; demurrer overruled and ten days to answer.

M. C. Lake vs. J. C. Lewis. Demurrer withdrawn and seven days to answer.

Ligamacino vs. Campacio; demurrer overruled and ten days to answer.

Cory & Co. vs. Crystal Peak Lumber Co.; set for Feb. 4.

Mayberry vs. Douglas & Hart; demurrer overruled and ten days to answer.

Richardson vs. Hoole; set for Jan. 9.

Smith vs. Mayberry; set for trial Jan. 9.

Grand Jurors.

The following is a list of the Grand Jurors drawn for the present term of Court: John Cahlan, J. E. Jones, Geo. Alt, G. W. Huffaker, H. H. Beck, Ross Lewers, C. A. Bragg, J. C. Hagerman, J. W. Holbrook, Wm. Dick, John Lee, M. Nathan, B. G. Clow, R. S. Osburn, Alvaro Evans, A. J. Clark, John Wright, J. C. Smith, J. J. Poor, E. Owens, C. A. Gibson, Frank Dickinson, Rufus Kinney, J. F. Alexander.

Late last night a high wind sprung up, and it was blowing lively when we went to press. So also the general outlook of things on the mountains west make us safe in saying it was stormy there; look out here!

The Marysville Appeal says of us: The New Year's issue of the Reno Journal is a creditable publication. It is a double sheet, and among its illustrations of local buildings is the "Sandy Bower's Mansion," now termed "Sandy's Folly."

Harry Noyes is going to remove that old oyster stand and put in three private rooms on that side of his place, to accommodate the eating public.

Ben Leete has sold his interest in the Eagle Salt Works, near Wadsworth, to his brother Bill, to whom Charlie Van Gorder willed his half.

The officers for the present term of Reno Lodge I. O. O. F. will be installed to-night by D. G. M. Bowker.

Salisbury & Wetherill have just received a fine lot of Booth's fresh canned Eastern oysters. Go and get a can.

Bishop Whitaker, with a bevy of school-children, came down on the train last night.

We learn that Len Savage is lying very low again.

Only four prisoners in jail.

The Reno Journal issued on New Year's day a double sheet filled with interesting statistical information, principally of Washoe county, illustrated with cuts of some of the more costly and ornate buildings in the county. Powning shows commendable enterprise.—Lyon Co. Times.

New Paper.—While in Carson yesterday we heard it rumored that another daily paper is to be started in Virginia City, and that it is to be in the interest of John P. Jones for United States Senator.—Lyon Co. Times.

Sweet Castor Oil.—Chemically prepared so as to remove all offensive taste without impairing any of the virtue of the oil. Adults like it; children cry for it. Manufactured and for sale by Matheson & McRae, City Drug Store. *

We will present any lady with a fine Silk Dress who will prove to us that our X. X. X. Bleaching Soap fails to do good washing without the use of the washboard, when directions are strictly complied with.

Kane & Tallman.

Special Notice.

Having determined on reducing my large stock of goods, previous to stock taking, I will on Monday and following days offer such bargains in dry goods as will convince the public that this is a bona fide sale. Every piece of goods in the store has been marked down to the lowest possible price in order to effect a speedy clearance. This no humbug or mock sale. When we tell you that you can buy goods cheaper than ever before offered in Reno we mean just what we say. Our domestics, flannels, blankets, bedspreads, table linen and towels, are marked below cost. Cloaks, skirts, waterproof and dress goods, at cost. Give us a call and judge for yourself. N. B. The remainder of our Holiday goods at very low prices.

Jacob Prescott's,
Commercial Row, Reno, next to the Postoffice.

The City Drug Store echoes that the prices of patent medicines, toilet and fancy articles have taken a tumble. If you do not believe it call and examine our stock of drugs, medicines and fancy goods. Our preparations of glycerine and Lieue Cream for cleansing and beautifying the hair, our Cream De Floridor for the complexion, our Fleurie De Lis for renewing the hair, and other articles, too numerous to mention, cannot be excelled by anybody; and are sold at prices as cheap as any drug store on the Pacific Coast.

N. B. Prescriptions carefully compounded, day or night, by a graduate of a pharmaceutical college, and none but the best and freshest drugs used.

* Matheson & McRae.

Hoole & Co., purchasing drugs and medicines at first hands, are enabled to sell drugs and standard patent medicines at lower rates than ever, and commence the new year with unparalleled reductions, offering patent medicines heretofore sold for one dollar, at 75 cents; Colgate & Co.'s Toilet soaps, 50 cents per box, and other goods at equally low prices. Prescriptions carefully compounded, day or night, by a scientific chemist, a graduate of the College of Pharmacy, London, of a 20 years practical experience. Prescriptions sold at lower prices than ever offered in Reno.

* S. F. Hoole & Co.

Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, announce a general reduction in prices, some of which are as follows:

Patent Medicines heretofore sold for $1 we will sell for - - -	75 cts
Soothing Syrup for - -	25 cts
Troches for - - - - - -	25 cts
Jamaica Ginger for - - -	25 cts
Cashmere Boquet Soap 5 cks.	100
Other Toilet Soaps - - -	12½ cts
Creme de Lis - - - - -	50 cts
Murray & Lanman's Florida Water - - - - - - -	50 cts

And a corresponding reduction in all toilet and fancy articles.

* Osburn & Shoemaker.

Removal.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Misses Brown & Harney where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House. *

The National Gold medal was awarded to Bradley and Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna medal for the best in the world.
